

“We want Rotary to be a place where individuals are united through common goals but also able to discuss their personal opinions and differences.

Hearing about individual experiences allows all of us to learn and take action to promote positive change, within ourselves and our communities.”

— Holger Knaak

Rotary International President 2020-21

